XVII. Each elector shall sign the voting-paper, or affix his mark thereto in the presence of the returning officer.

XVIII. Any voting-paper which is not so signed or marked or on which votes are given to more persons than there are persons to be elected, shall be invalid.

XIX. When a person presents himself to vote, the returning officer shall satisfy himself that the person is an elector, and shall then place against his name in the copy of the list of electors a tick, which will denote that that elector has voted.

XX. The elector shall give his vote by placing his voting-paper in a receptacle hereinafter called the urn.

XXI. Just before the commencement of the poll, the returning officer shall show the urn empty to such persons as may be present at the polling-place and shall then place it in his view and keep it there till the close of the poll.

XXII. At the close of the poll, in the presence of such electors, if any, as may be in attendance, the returning officer shall—

XXIII. The returning officer shall then forward the return and the packets of voting-papers to the Magistrate of the District, who shall record a declaration of the result of the election and cause notice of his election to be given to each person elected.

XXIV. (1) The Magistrate of the District shall retain for a year the return and the packets of voting-papers forwarded to him by the returning officer, and shall then, unless there appear to him any reason for retaining them for a further period, cause them to be destroyed in his presence.

(2) While the return is in the custody of the Magistrate of the District, it shall be open to the inspection of any elector during office hours free of charge.

(3) While the packets are in the custody of the Magistrate of the District, they shall not be opened, and their contents shall not be inspected, except under his written order and on such conditions as he may deem fit to impose.

XXV. Where an equality of votes is found to exist between any persons, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of those persons to be declared to be elected, the returning officer may give such additional vote in writing, but shall not in any other case be entitled to vote at an election for which he is returning officer.

XXVI. If a person be elected for more than one Sub-District, the District Magistrate of Ajmere shall decide of which Local Board he shall be a member; and in the other Sub-District, or each of the other Sub-Districts, as the case may be, the person not returned as elected, to whom the largest number of votes was given, shall be deemed to have been elected.

XXVIII. Each Local Board shall elect from among its own members so many persons to be members of the District Board as the Chief Commissioner has assigned as proper for its representation on that Board.

XXIX. One-third of the members of Local and District Boards shall retire by rotation at the end of every year, the members thus retiring being chosen by lot.

XXX. Casual vacancies occurring within the term of three years shall be filled by persons nominated by the Local or District Board.

XXXI. When the place of an elected member of a Local or District Board becomes vacant by his resignation, removal or death, or by the avoidance of his election or by his refusal to accept office, it shall, unless in any case the Chief Commissioner direct that it be left unfilled, be filled by the Local or District Board at a meeting out of qualified persons within six weeks after the occurrence of the vacancy or within such further period as the District Magistrate may by order allow.

XXXII. The meeting may be either ordinary or special, but if it be proposed to fill the place at an ordinary meeting, the notice to attend the meeting shall state particulars as to the vacancy which has occurred and the intention of filling it at the meeting.

XXXIII. All business in either Local or District Boards shall be conducted in either the Urdu or Hindi language as the District Board may at a special meeting decide.

XXXIV. Every meeting shall be open to the public, unless at any meeting the chairman order otherwise.

XXXV. The chairman of the meeting shall regulate the course of all business to be brought forward and preserve order.

XXXVI. Every motion or amendment shall be presented or taken down in writing.

XXXVII. The chairman may require that any motion or amendment proposed shall be seconded before it is discussed.

XXXVIII. In proposing or discussing any motion or amendment, the member shall speak from his place and address the chairman.

XXXIX. All questions from one member to another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the chairman.

XL. All questions shall be determined by a majority of votes. The chairman or in his absence the vice-chairman shall have a casting vote.
